

Global University Rankings Overview

Description:

This dashboard presents an overview of global university rankings by analyzing data on university quality and academic performance from 2011 to 2016. It includes:

- The average university score globally as a key performance indicator (KPI).
- A trend line showing how the average university quality has evolved over the years.
- A horizontal bar chart highlighting the leading countries by university quality.
- A geographical map visualizing the academic quality and spread of top universities worldwide.

Average University Score Globally

59.85

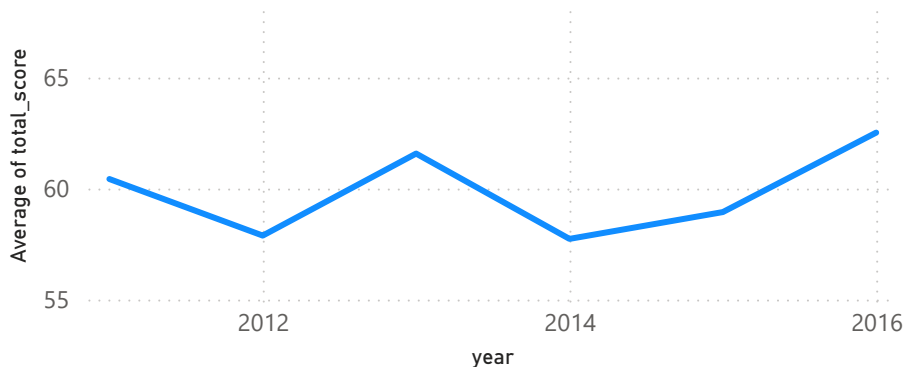

Average Score

Key insights: The average global university score is around 60, showing consistent and gradually improving academic quality worldwide from 2011 to 2016. Top countries leading in university quality include Singapore, the USA, China, and Switzerland. The geographic distribution highlights stronger academic performance mainly in North America, Europe, and parts of Asia, revealing clear regional differences in university rankings.

Leading Countries by University Quality

Average University Quality Over Years

Geographical Spread and Academic Quality of Global Universities

- year
- ☐ 2011
  - ☐ 2012
  - ☐ 2013
  - ☐ 2014
  - ☐ 2015
  - ☐ 2016